

PROBABLE ACTION
AT WASHINGTONTHE WEEK'S PROGRAMME HAS BEEN MADE OUT.

No Holiday Adjournment of Either Body Probable—Republican Leaders Hold a Conference—Cabinet Officers Meet—Senate Will Have To Wait for the Lower House.

Washington, Dec. 23.—This promises to be an eventful week in the house. Before adjournment is reached next Saturday the Republican leaders intend a bill shall have been sent to the Senate in response to the demand of the President's message of Friday for some means of protecting the treasury situation and relieving the gold reserve.

All idea of taking a recess for the holidays was abandoned in the face of the situation presented. Saturday night the Republican members held a secret meeting at the Capitol, at which Speaker Reed was present, to discuss the details of a bill which, in their opinion, would furnish the desired relief.

As a preliminary it was decided that while the situation in the Senate as to the fate there of any measure passed by the British should be kept in mind, the House must act independently of the result in the upper branch of Congress. The general outline of a measure was practically agreed upon, but the details have not been completed.

The sentiment was unanimous that no gold bonds should be authorized. Mr. Reed's bond proposition, which the committee will adopt, provides, first, for the reduction of the rate of interest on bonds to be issued under the acts of 1870 and 1875 for the purpose of resuming specie payment and protecting the specie reserve, from 4 to 3 per cent, and, second, for a low-rate, low-denominational bond which would practically be a debt certificate to be used to supply deficiencies in the revenues.

By the terms of the bill it is probable that provisions will be inserted to provide that the proceeds of any bonds issued under the acts of 1870 and 1875 as amended shall go to the reserve and of the latter bonds to pay current expenses. In this way a separate account can be kept and the proceeds of bonds sold to maintain the reserve cannot be used to pay current expenses.

The details of the tariff changes will furnish the most difficult task in framing the bill. There is practical unanimity of sentiment so far as can be learned among the republican members of the committee for a duty on wool and compensating duties on woolsens. The western members want the duty on wool to be at least 8 cents a pound, but the indications are it will not exceed 5 cents. There is some discussion of a proposition to make a horizontal increase on all the schedules except sugar of from 15 to 20 per cent, but that is opposed in certain quarters as being not on protection lines.

It seems probable, therefore, that wool and woolsens, lumber and various other articles will be selected. While there is, it is said, some difference of opinion on this point, it seems certain that there will be a time limitation of two years or thirty months on the life of the tariff propositions of the bill. The point will be made that it is an emergency measure for raising revenue. After the bill has been sent to the Senate the question whether Congress shall remain in session the remainder of the holidays will rest with that body.

If the Senate will proceed to the consideration of the bill the House will remain in session and probably adjourn from day to day, but if the Senate should, after the passage of the house bill, show that it did not propose to go ahead with it, and should deliberately pass a resolution for a holiday recess, it is possible that the House would agree to it.

As to the attitude of the Democrats toward the bill, it seems probable it will be opposed by most, if not all. The silver Democrats are not disposed to vote for any bond proposition; first, because they believe there is another remedy in the hands of the executive—the redemption of notes in silver. They might vote for coin bonds to borrow money if the executive said that money was needed to meet current expenses, but as the demand for authority to issue bonds is not based on that ground—which in fact is distinctly disavowed—their opposition to the bond feature of the bill is certain. They would probably also resist the measure on account of the increase in tariff schedules. The administration and sound money Democrats, who might be disposed to vote for a bond authorization, will probably be deterred from voting for the measure because of its tariff propositions. So that the solid opposition of the Democrats is looked for. The overwhelming Republican majority insures its passage, however, beyond question.

TO WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

President's Last Message Read in the House, and Referred.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The House responded to the President's message Saturday by pigeon-holing the resolution for a holiday recess and preparing to go to work to provide some means for the relief of the treasury. There was no difference of opinion on the surface, at least, that Congress should remain at its post in the emergency to which Mr. Cleveland has called attention. The speaker announced the committees and the decks were cleared for business. The ways and means committee, to which the message was referred, met immediately to organize, and to-day the work of framing a bill will commence.

Speaker Reed laid before the House the President's message, and notwithstanding all the members had read the document in the newspapers it was listened to with attention. Speaker Reed immediately referred the message to the committee of ways and means, and then announced the membership of the standing committees.

President Confers with His Advisers. Washington, Dec. 23.—The fact that several members of the cabinet were observed coming from the White House yesterday led to a general surmise that there had been a special cabinet meeting held to consider some phase of the Venezuelan question or the condition of the finances. Diligent inquiry, however, failed to establish the fact that a cabinet meeting actually took place, but there is no doubt that a conference, the nature of which cannot be ascertained, was in progress during the day between the President and some of his advisers. Those who were at the White House included Secretaries Olney, Carlisle and Lamont.

Senate Waits on the House. Washington, Dec. 23.—The course of the Senate this week will depend largely, if not entirely, upon the turn which affairs shall take in the House. The Senate adjourned Saturday until Tuesday.

THE FEELING OVER IN EUROPE

One Prominent Englishman Who Thinks War Is Improbable.

London, Dec. 23.—Sir A. K. Rolit, the Conservative member of Parliament for the South Division of Islington, and President of the London and Hull and Associated Chamber of Commerce, granted an exclusive interview yesterday on the outlook for the Venezuelan question. He said: "It is deeply to be regretted that the incident had imperiled both the good will and trade, and even peace and commerce must in any case be most seriously interrupted and injured just at the time when prospects were improving and business-men were justly hoping for better times."

He did not question the American attachment to the Monroe doctrine and that it was sanctioned by cogent reasons from their point of view. But, after all, he added it was only an expedient dictum and had never been embodied in international law. The feeling which inspired it, however, he thought was intelligible, but in the true sense of the doctrine Great Britain could not justly be said to desire an extension of territory in seeking a delimitation of its frontier or in insisting upon a recognition of what she believes to be her just rights by a state greatly indebted to her for the development of its public works.

A Vienna dispatch says: "President Cleveland is in no small measure responsible for the ruin of hundreds of capitalists in Austria. The Turkish and Abyssinian troubles had shaken the Vienna money market to its foundation, but the New York panic gave it its coup de grace, from which it will take months to recover. In Saturday's panic on the bourse prices receded by leaps and bounds till they reached a figure lower than for years past. The Austrian credit mobilier fell 19 florins, the Hungarian credit mobilier 26, and the Austrian state railways 20 from Friday's prices. It is impossible to estimate, even roughly, the consequences of the panic."

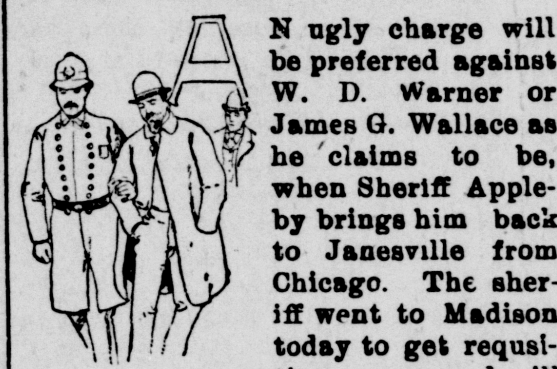

A Berlin dispatch says: "The tidal wave of financial panic which has rolled across the Atlantic for the last two days has not spared the Berlin bourse, which was in a state of feverish excitement on Saturday, speculative securities declining 10 per cent. The Boersen Courier merely reflects the temper of financial circles here when it describes President Cleveland as speculating by his wanton provocation of England on the meanest form of national feeling. It is argued that a country which on the first appearance of a war cloud suffers losses according to one estimate from New York equal to the whole of the war indemnity which France paid Germany is not in a position to wage war, especially on such a trumpery issue. There is little inclination here to take up an American loan, while Paris can scarcely meet the requirements of its old clients in Turkey and Spain. The want of money, it is true, never yet prevented a country from rushing into war. But seldom does the decision rest so largely as in America with the class whose peculiar interests are so largely at stake. On the other hand fears are expressed that the magnitude of the losses already sustained will induce a feeling of desperation, and there are many business men who still remember the enormous fortunes made in America during the civil war."

The dispatch from St. Petersburg says: "It is easy to see that the Russians cannot help showing satisfaction at the serious turn the dispute has taken. The Novoe Vremya is at no pains to hide its real sentiments and animus towards England. It declares that Lord Salisbury has already radically changed his eastern policy by positively refusing any further support to the Armenian agitation, on the ground that Europe does not sympathize with Armenia."

The dispatch from Rome says: "Public opinion is unanimous against President Cleveland. The financial panic had no perceptible influence here."

WALTER D. WARNER
IS RUN TO EARTHBROKE JAIL HERE SIX YEARS AGO.

Charged with Forging a Check at Beloit, But Escaped While Awaiting Trial—Sheriff Located Him in Chicago—Denies That He Is the Man—Requisition Asked For.

then go to the World's Fair City and get his man.

Warner was arrested six years ago at Beloit on the charge of forgery. It was alleged that he signed the name of J. B. Gordon of that city, and passed it at the establishment of C. A. Still. He waived examination, and was brought to Janesville and locked up. While in the jail here, he, with others, succeeded in escaping, and had not been seen since.

Some time ago, however, a friend of Warner's was arrested at Beloit, and told of Warner's whereabouts. Sheriff Appleby was notified and went to Chicago. He secured a warrant and a Windy City detective found him and locked him up. When Sheriff Appleby reached Chicago, Warner refused to come, and appealed to his friends to save him.

Denies That He Is the Man.

Sheriff Appleby returned to Janesville and District Attorney Jackson prepared the application for a requisition that the sheriff carried to Madison today. Soon after Warner's escape the Chicago police say, Warner showed up at Englewood, and said his name was Wallace. He raised a moustache and side whiskers, and looked nothing like the pictures and descriptions of Warner sent out broadcast.

In 1890 Wallace was arrested in Englewood for a series of forgeries and sent to Joliet for two years. He returned to Englewood and says he has not been out of the place since. He stoutly denies that he is the man wanted, and insists that he has never been in Wisconsin.

There are now two charges him. The forgery matter has not been passed upon. That is a state prison offense, while jail breaking is a crime punishable with a jail sentence. Sheriff Appleby may get his papers in time to bring Warner to Janesville tonight, but at any rate, his Christmas will be spent as the guest of the sheriff.

Bad Boys Threw Stones. The local police were on the still hunt today for three Second ward boys who threw a stone through a caboose window yesterday afternoon. As a C. & N. W. freight train was passing the Hanson Furniture factory the rock was thrown, it narrowly missing the head of the conductor. The matter was reported to Superintendent Moulton and three boys who were seen in that locality are suspected.

Chief Acheson was notified by the Rockford police to watch all trains for thieves who stole one other jacket, two seal skin jackets, two other capes, one leopard coat, and one marten cape, from a store in the Forest City.

LAND FOR SETTLERS.

Immense Tract in Iowa to Be Thrown Open Feb. 27.

Mason City, Iowa, Dec. 23.—Iowa has 21,000 acres of its domain which will be thrown open to settlement February 27. United States Land Commissioner Evans has been in this locality for several days, and has finally settled upon this date. Judging from the talk the matter has produced, a repetition of the Oklahoma rush may be expected. The land is all located in O'Brien county, in the northwestern part of the state, and is as rich and fertile as can be found anywhere. There are now many squatters holding down valuable pieces of land, and of course none of these will be given any precedence. All the even sections of land have been bought up long ago. Between these squatters and the "old settlers" contentions will doubtless arise, as nearly all the settlers have families of boys and girls who are anxious themselves to come into possession of some of this land. Every precaution, of course, will be taken to prevent any serious trouble, but the spirit of avarice is likely to assert itself in not a few cases, and a warm time at least is anticipated at the opening.

Philadelphia Strike Situation.

Philadelphia, Dec. 23.—At a late hour last night the strike situation was apparently unchanged, but the air was full of rumors. No attempt was made to run cars Sunday, the authorities fearing violence from the strikers' sympathizers. Many of the most prominent clergymen of the city discussed the strike from the pulpit, and while deploring violence were almost unanimous in upholding the demands of the men and condemning the action of the company. Henry F. Graham of Brooklyn, who was brought here to work, made an affidavit stating the company is offering the new men $2.50 a day, while they refuse the old ones $2.

SUE A. RICHARDSON
ON AN OLD NOTEWALDEN & PALMER CLAIMS
ARE IN COURT.

Justice Richardson To Pass Upon the Claim That Mr. Richardson Should Be Responsible—Several Firms Form a Pool To Try a Test Case.

A law suit growing out of the failure of Waldron & Palmer, a firm that used to make children's footwear is now on trial before Justice Marshall P. Richardson, the defendant being Alexander Richardson.

When the Walden & Palmer factory was in operation, it is alleged Mr. Richardson canvassed the city for money. He got $100 each from C. S. Jackson, Rogers & Hutchinson, George G. Sutherland, Palmer & Stevens, Kniff & Allen, Trulson & Peterson and E. C. Johnson. These claims were secured by notes to run three years and draw 5 per cent interest. It is also said Mr. Richardson gave him personal assurance as to their payment. C. S. Jackson, Rogers & Hutchinson and G. G. Sutherland, it is alleged received value received on their claims but the others did not. Consequently they have pooled issues to have a test case to see if Mr. Richardson can be held for the payment. The case was adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning before it was concluded.

FOR THE COMMISSION.

Prominent Men Who Are Likely to Go to Venezuela.

Washington, Dec. 23.—There is reason to believe that the Venezuelan commission will consist of ex-Minister Edward J. Phelps, ex-Minister Robert T. Lincoln and either Justice D. J. Brewer of the Supreme Court or Chief Justice Fuller. The President desires to select one member from the supreme bench. He would prefer Chief Justice Fuller, but there is a question as to the advisability of taking the Chief Justice away from his duties on the bench at this time, when the court is in session. If this consideration bars Fuller, as it is likely to do, the choice will fall upon Justice Brewer, for whose attainments the President has great respect. These names were all favorably considered by the cabinet Sunday.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS COLLIDE.

One Life Lost as the Result of Careless Seamanship.

Southampton, Dec. 23.—The Red Star steamship Berlin, Captain Lewis, from Antwerp for New York, has returned here with her bow damaged by a collision with the Willowbank, Captain Young, of Glasgow, whose crew was saved and is aboard the Berlin. The Falmouth pilot on the Willowbank, who went below to save his clothes, was drowned. The Berlin collided with and sank the British ship Willowbank thirty miles southwest of the Isle of Portland at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The steamship Blake picked up a water-logged lifeboat and rescued the crew of one of the Berlin's lifeboats which had lost control of her rudder in the heavy sea.

Brakeman's Wild Ride.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Dec. 23.—A runaway freight car with a brakeman clinging to the top wildly shouting for help rushed across the railway suspension bridge spanning the great gorge of the Niagara last night. The car was going at the rate of thirty miles an hour where it crossed the tracks of all the trunk roads. Luckily there were no trains passing nor were there any on the bridge. The car sped over the bridge and into the Grand Trunk yards on the Canadian side, where it ran into a passenger coach and was wrecked. William Hoffman, the brakeman, escaped without serious injury.

No Naval Cruise at Present.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The proposed cruise of the North Atlantic squadron is off for the present at least. The departure of the vessels, if they go at all, will be contingent upon the arrival at Norfolk of the cruiser Texas, now in the vicinity of New York awaiting the official trial of her engines. The squadron is also awaiting the arrival of the cruiser Maine. Meanwhile the ships now at Norfolk will in all probability make good use of the time available by engaging in a series of drills and maneuvers.

Armenians Retaliate.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The Turkish legation received from the Sublime Porte the following telegram under Sunday's date: "The insurgents of Zeitoun attacked the Mussulman village of Mehli, killed and burned two men, five women, and three children, and carried away the cattle and things belonging to the inhabitants. The survivors fled to Kenkonn. With the exception of Zeitoun, perfect order reigns in the whole empire."

Must Stop Buying Grain.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 23.—An Englishman who is in the city and who has been buying grain for a firm in his country states that he has received a cablegram notifying him not to make any more purchases at present, because there is danger of England closing her ports to American products.

C. & N. W. PAYS BIG SUM MONTHLY

Nearly $16,000 in Checks Received in Janesville During November

It has been semi-officially announced the Chicago and Northwestern company paid out some $16,000 in checks in Janesville during the month of November. Perhaps the papers and people who want to "see the company take their old depot and pull out" would also like to see them take the $16,000 a month away too, with that justly celebrated building.

FATAL ACCIDENTS OF A DAY.

Variety of Casualties That Cost Many Human Lives.

Arvada, Colo., Dec. 23.—Four people were drowned at Lathrop lake yesterday morning. Their names are: JONES, CHARLIE, aged 10 years. JONES, ROBERT, aged 21 years. JONES, MAGGIE, aged 20 years. BELL, INA, aged 16 years.

A large company of people went out to the lake to skate, which is an annual luxury in this section of the state, when the ice broke and Charlie Jones slipped through. His screams aroused the whole party, and instantly there was a rush on the part of his brother and sister to aid him. Miss Bell, who had been skating with Maggie Jones, accompanied her.

The remainder of the crowd shouted to them to desist, that there was danger of their being drowned, but the three young people crowded about the break in the ice and in their frantic efforts to rescue the little fellow they broke through, and coming up under the ice, died before their friends, who were near, could break it in time to save them. The wonder is that more were not drowned, for nearly everybody on the ice came dangerously near to the gaping hole, and there were a number of narrow escapes.

Those who saw the accident say they will never forget it. They were within a few feet of the unfortunate, could see them struggling in the water, heard their cries as they went under and noted their gestures of distress after they passed under the ice, but were unable to help them or to approach without going down to death themselves. When boards were brought to the scene of the accident and the ice broken the children were all dead.

FATAL FIRE IN WEST VIRGINIA.

One Dead and Four Injured—Jumped from Fourth Story Window.

Bluefield, W. Va., Dec. 23.—Fire at 5 o'clock yesterday morning resulted in the monetary loss of $50,000, one man's life, and the severe injury of several others. The dead: STEVENS, ELI, servant in the hotel; burned to death.

The injured: Blues, George W.; severely injured; will probably recover. Combars, Miss Sallie; severely injured; will probably recover.

New, Miss Emma; severely injured; will probably recover. Ritz, S. L.; fatally hurt.

The fire originated in Tomany's bakery and quickly spread to B. C. Cohen's clothing store and the Central hotel, entirely destroying the three structures. The scene in the burning hotel was an exciting one. The guests all escaped with their lives, but saved little else. S. L. Ritz succeeded in rescuing a woman and three children, and then to save himself had to jump from a fourth-story window. George W. Blues, Misses Sallie Combars and Emma New jumped from the second story.

Killed at a Grade Crossing. Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 23.—Two persons were killed by a Great Northern train at Carlisle Saturday night. The dead:

BURAN, EDWARD, JR., of Ferguson Falls.

MOX, MISS EMMA, domestic in Buran's family.

Miss Mox was at a dance and Mrs. Buran becoming ill Buran went after her. While crossing the Great Northern tracks on the way back an east-bound train struck them. Both were killed, as well as the two horses which Buran was driving. The girl had both legs and an arm broken and was injured internally. Buran had both legs broken and his skull crushed in.

Drowned While Forging a Creek.

Hot Springs, Ark., Dec. 23.—News has reached here of the drowning of three persons in Forchee creek on Thursday. The dead:

HARDAGE, ADA, sister of Mrs. Whitard.

WHITARD, MRS. TENNIE, of Bismarck, Mo.

INFANT CHILD of Mrs. Whitard.

The party was attempting to ford the stream. The infant's body has been recovered.

Injured in a Mine Explosion.

Carlyle, Ill., Dec. 23.—News is received here of an explosion in a coal mine at Odin, in which four miners were severely and several others slightly burned. The injured:

Dallas, John.

Dallas, Robert.

Daman, Andrew.

Simpson, John.

Three Boys Drowned.

Morris, Ill., Dec. 23.—Three boys were drowned in the canal yesterday. The dead are:

BEATH MAY FOLLOW.

Two Men Are Stabbed, One of Them Fatally—Eight Warrants Are Issued for the Participants—Water Power Deal a Go—An Accident at Bayfield.

Neenah, Dec. 23.—[Special].—A free-for-all fight occurred at a dance here tonight. The injured: HOUTZ, Fred stabbed. Will recover. KRISKEBERT, JOHN stabbed. Will die.

The battle was a gory one. Houtz had the muscles of his right arm severed with a knife thrust and nearly bled to death before medical aid could be secured.

Reisegert was stabbed under the lower ribs and his injuries are such that his death is expected. Eight warrants were issued today for alleged participants in the fracas.

Water Power Deal is a "Go."

Menasha, Dec. 23.—[Special].—It is almost certain now that the plan of W. Z. Stuart to consolidate the water power interests of the Fox River Valley will go through. The Mississippi canal company has consented to the deal and the owners of leases at Neenah and Menasha have practically agreed to fall in line.

Accident to a Coasting Party.

Bayfield, Wis., Dec. 23.—Three persons were seriously hurt while coasting here last night. The injured:

BROWN, MRS.

FIEGE, MRS. JOHN.

SHAW, FRANK.

A bobbed loaded with people collided with a team at the foot of a steep hill. Owing to its terrific speed the men guiding the sled could not turn out, and struck the team with full force, throwing the team down on top of the load. It was a miracle no one was killed. All the injured are doing well.

REVIVAL MEETINGS ARE NOW AT AN END

THE CLOSING SERVICE WAS HELD YESTERDAY.

Over One Hundred Have Begun Life Anew, and About Seventy Joined the Church Yesterday—Rev. V. E. Southworth's Lecture—Gen. Bintliff Comes Next—Other Church News

SUNDAY'S meeting at the First M. E. church closed the revival services at that church and Evangelist A. Edwin Burrows left today his home at Ravenswood. The closing meeting was held last night. They have been of unusual interest and a large attendance has been the rule. Over one hundred embraced the faith during their run and began the new life under their guidance. Sunday was a great day at the First M. E. church. The Love feast at 9:30 was well attended, and a large number testified.

The morning service consisted of a baptismal service, the introduction to the church of about fifty-five probationers, with a short talk to the members of the church, on the proper care of those who seek church membership, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number. The pastor was assisted by Evangelist A. E. Burrows and Rev. Noah Dutton of this city. A. the close of the morning service, the three infant children of Mrs. Henrietta Lawrence were baptized by Rev. Burrows. The Y. M. C. A. quartette and orchestra rendered valuable aid in the evening service and for this and the service previously rendered, the large congregation gave them a vote of thanks in which the organist was included.

The evening sermon was one of the best Mr. Burrows has preached. His text was: Matt. 27, 22. After the sermon a final appeal was made to the unconverted, and many came to the altar asking forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ, as a full baptism of the Holy Spirit for work. Mr. Burrows gave some valuable counsels to those who have recently begun a Christian life, after which he offered an earnest prayer for all the Christian workers and agencies of the city, especially the Y. M. C. A. and their secretary. The choir and congregation then sang: "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," after which the benediction was pronounced and the people eagerly pressed to the altar to say good bye to Mr. Burrows. Rev. V. E. Southworth's lecture at All Sou's church, was heard by a goodly audience yesterday and was of interest.

His Address in Part
"It seems to be the fate of great ideas. Some one sets them ringing down the ages, and the rest are but the echoes, who repeat, repeat, repeat, until the spirit is gone and the life fled. And what were great ideas, become fixed and fossilized to dogmas," said Mr. Southworth.

"The doctrines of early Protestantism met the same fate which had previously befallen the doctrines of the early Christian church. They had their awakening and invigorating heroes. They became hardened into institutions. As one has wisely said—'the idea created the institution, and then the institution crushes the idea.' Behold the marvellous incompatibilities of which man is capable.

Luther had said to the Diet of Worms: "Confute me! Give me plain reasons! Show me where I am wrong! Then I will recant. But until then I will stand on conscience. It is not right or safe to do otherwise."

And yet before he died he actually taught that "to strangle the reason is the most agreeable sacrifice which can be offered to the Lord God."

A rigid scripturalism is the most representative characteristic of all "Protestants" strictly so called. The Catholics have the same characteristic, but in their case it is a problem for schoolmen and the Pope is always ready to speak ex officio and elucidate any disputed interpretation of scripture he can do so with infallibility. There is no appeal from the Pope. God himself could not decide the matter with any greater conclusiveness. But Protestants have committed suicide, have ruled the Pope out of court, and God is otherwise engaged than in settling disputes on the Bible. So there is no help for it. If Protestants disagree a new sect must be formed. And God have mercy on the man who dares stand in the way.

The bible is the legislative text book, the one infallible rule of faith and practice, among protestants. And he who stands out against the bible must expect from protestants what Luther got for standing out against the Pope. The difficulty is the same. Only the point in dispute is changed. This is the weakness of protestantism.—it dreams that "With that idol-volumes covers two, it can make a jail to coop the living God.
"God is not dumb that he should speak no more;

If thou hast wanderings in the wilderness And findest not Sinai, it is thy soul is poor. There towers the mountain of the voice no less, Which who so seeks shall find, but he who fends Intent on manna still and mortal ends Sees it not, neither hears its thundered lore. Slowly the bible of the race is writ And not on paper leaves nor leaves of stone, Each age, each kindred, adds a verse to it, Texts of despair or hope, of joy or moan. Whilswings the sea, while mists the mountains shroud,

While thunder's surges burst on cliffs of cloud Still at the prophet's feet the nations sit."
Gen. James Bintliff of Darlington will speak next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Culture Club's lecture course in the All Souls church. Miss Mamie E. Hillbrandt will play a violin solo.

At the Baptist Church
The pastor occupied the pulpit both morning and evening. At the morning service E. O. Kimberley sang a solo very appropriate to the Christmas season. "Christ as a Counselor," Rev. 3:18, was the subject of the morning service. We are counseled to buy gold tried in the fire, true riches. Coin bearing the image of Caesar passed current in all parts of the Roman empire, so those bearing the image of Christ will be accepted in His kingdom. Raiment is an important question either on account of poverty or the dictates of fashion. Christ advises white raiment, as emblematical of purity, the raiment of the heavenly host. The Captain of our salvation will lead forth His army and all must be clad in the same uniform, the robe of His righteousness.

We are counseled to anoint our eyes with eye salve that we may see. We have important interests across the dark valley but we cannot see them unless our eyes are anointed. We have important interests across the dark valley but we cannot see them unless our eyes are anointed. An important ingredient of the eye salve is the Word of God others are public worship, christian society, christian education. The purchase price of the gold, raiment and eye salve all typical of salvation, is simply our acceptance of truth.

"The Shepherds and Angels" was the subject of the evening service. We notice that the manifestation was made to men of low degree, while they were about their ordinary work. God speaks in many ways, under varying circumstances, is not confined to a crowded meeting.

There was an attendance of two hundred and eighty-two at the Sunday school. A collection was taken up to be given to destitute families.

At the Congregational Church.
A large congregation greeted Rev. S. P. Wilder yesterday morning at the Congregational church. The music was rendered in a very pleasing manner by a ladies' trio composed of Mrs. A. O. Wilson, Mrs. Lewis and Miss Frank Edwards.

The Sunday school numbered nearly three hundred, and when W. S. Jeffris promised the children that at their Christmas entertainment to be held Tuesday evening, at 6 o'clock Santa Claus would appear with a Christmas tree, their joy knew no bounds. The primary department have planned a program full of interest, which will be carried out at that time.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK
New Officers Were Elected and Other Work Done

The Congregational Christian Endeavor society elected the following officers and chairmen of committees: President—F. Amelia Harrington. Vice President—Selden Mosely. Secretary—Gertrude Cobb. Treasurer—Mrs. H. J. Cunningham.

Chairman Lookout Committee—Nettie E. Harrington. Prayer Meeting—F. A. Spoon. Social—Louise Kent. Good Citizenship—Professor H. L. Brown.

Missionary—Katherine Shopbell. Junior—Nellie J. Holmes. Flower—Belle Allen. Finance—May Cunningham. Invitation—Fannie Ryckman.

The society is planning to furnish Christmas dinners for five or more families and would be glad of any provisions, toys or clothing which might be left at the church Tuesday evening at the children's entertainment or Wednesday morning before nine o'clock. This society has done this work for three years now and say it is the most delightful part of their Christmas time.

It was good, to hear the voices of those who are home from schools for the Christmas season. The meetings are largely attended and full of interest.

"The Good Tidings of Christmas" was the subject of the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Baptist church. The principal thought was the importance of telling to others the good news we have heard.

TOOK VOWS AT CUPID'S ALTAR
Grampke-Sampson.

Charles G. Grampke and Miss Lorena Sampson were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Mardock at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, Rev. D. M. G. Hodge performing the ceremony. Both young people are well known, the groom having been in Mr. Mardock's employ for the past ten years. They will reside on Lincoln street.

JOHN D. LONG LAID TO THE FINAL REST

FUNERAL WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED.

Committee of Prominent Democrats Headed by M. C. McDonald and Ex-Police Captain Daniel Duffy, Came with the Remains—Floral Emblems Were Especially Fine.

The funeral of the late John D. Long was held from St. Patrick's church at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Dean McGinnity conducting the services, and the interment was made at Mount Olivet, where Mr. Long's parents are at rest.

The remains were brought to this city at 12:40 o'clock. The funeral party was composed of about seventy people, and they came in a special car. Twenty-five members of the County Democracy were with the party they having been appointed a committee to represent that organization. The floral emblems were especially fine. Among them was a large six feet high from the employes of the Park Theatre, while a piece sent by the Democracy was a handsome pillow inscribed "Cook County Democratic Marching Club." The party returned to Chicago at 6:40 o'clock.

Among those who attended the funeral was Col. George Hall, the noted Evansville showman, with whom Mr. Long has been associated in business. Mr. Hall was sick in bed but when he heard that his old friend was to be buried in Janesville, he got up, ordered his horse and drove to Janesville to attend the funeral.

The pall bearers were F. J. Murphy, W. Fagan, Daniel Duffy, F. W. Frantz, P. O'Brien and M. McNamara. The County Democracy was headed by the noted politician, Michael C. McDonald and Ex-Police Captain Daniel Duffy, the others being:

J. C. Carew, John Long, Charles Connor, George Williams, Frank Murphy, Michael Long, James Lomax, John Howland, Harry Flint, W. Morgan, Dennis Long, Thomas Dooley, Dan Duffy, George Morgan, J. Frantz, Patrick O'Brien, J. H. Sims, J. Stillson, M. Shaunessy.

Among those from Milwaukee were: M. J. Donahue, Mrs. Schoen, Thomas Maher, Miss Anna Donahue, J. E. Donahue, James Malloy.

Funeral of Mrs. Enslie.
The funeral of Mrs. Henry Engelke was held from the residence in the town of Newark at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a large delegation from the city being present. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Vogt, of Beloit, and were very touching. The ball bearers were John Gruenberg, Henry Gruenberg, Fritz Klingenberg, John Klingberg, Fritz Wiedeman and Henry Foss.

OLD LADY NEEDED COUNTY AID
Superintendent of the Poor Kenyon Investigates a Case in Magnolia.

Superintendent of the Poor S. H. Kenyon investigated a case of destitution in the town of Magnolia on Saturday. It was said that an old lady needed aid, and when Mr. Kenyon reached the farm, he found the lady, Mrs. Hatch, to be old and helpless. She resided with a family who were not able to care for her, and who thought that she should be removed to the county buildings. Mrs. Hatch said that she had a blind son who was a preacher at Minneapolis, and that she expected him home soon. He was not making a great success of his Minneapolis work, she said, but expected soon to take up a new field somewhere in northern Illinois. After looking into the matter, Superintendent Kenyon decided to let the matter rest for the present, and to await the arrival of R. v. Mr. Hatch.

NEW STYLE OF SANDHOUSE BUILT
C. & N. W. Engineers No Longer Have to Use Buckets and a Ladder.

The Northwestern Railroad Company has just completed a "tower sandhouse" which is situated in the lower yards near the round house. For years past local engineers have had to fill the engine sand boxes in the old fashioned way of carrying them in buckets and pouring it in pouring it in from the top of a ladder—but in the future it will be different for new scheme will be worked on the same plan as taking water from tanks. All engineers will have to do, is to back up to the sand house and the sand box can easily be filled by way of the spout. The sand house or tank is built on a scaffolding twenty feet in the air. The sand is all dried in a near by kiln and it is forced up into the sand house by means of air.

ROSE CARNIVAL ON JANUARY 1.
Mrs. C. H. Jordan Writes From Pasadena Describing Life On the Slope.

Mrs. C. H. Jordan, better remembered in Janesville as Mrs. Mary Cook, writes from Pasadena, California, to her uncle, G. B. Austin, of this city. She tells of the rose tournament to be held January 1 and says the Strangs, the Barlows, the Owens and all the rest of the Janesville crowd who went out last winter will eat dinner together after the parade. Mrs. Jordan throws a side light on the Pasadena tourist industry when she says she and her husband have rented their house for $70 a month for the winter and are living in a four room cottage.

MORE PRAISE FOR THE FIREMEN

Beloit Free Press Speaks of the Hort, Bailey & Co. Blaze.

The Beloit Free Press says: "The fire in Hort, Bailey & Co's Janesville store the other evening demonstrated two things, namely, that the fire department of that city under Chief Spencer possesses a sufficiency of water and brains enough to apply it as it should be. With these two requisites Janesville is amply protected against the ravages of fire, even as Beloit is."

LOCAL COLLEGE BOYS HONORED

Ralph Jackman and George Tallman Are on an Important Committee.

Two Janesville boys, Ralph Jackman and George Tallman, have been given two of the highest social honors attainable in the State University. Both have been appointed members of the Junior Promenade Committee, the great social event of the year. Jackman is chairman of the committee, a position much coveted.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1750—Frederick Augustus of Saxony born; died 1827; became first king of Saxony and was named the Just.
 1783—Thomas Macdonough, American naval commander and hero of Lake Champlain, born in New Castle, Del.; died 1835. Macdonough's brilliant victory over the British on Sept. 11, 1814, was gained by sheer pluck. The commander formed his line in a manner that compelled the British ships to pass between the American vessels. His flagship, the Saratoga, decided the fight. After the engaged guns had been disabled the ship was cleverly brought around, giving play to a fresh broadside. The British flagship stuck to the Saratoga, and the British commander was killed. Macdonough was promoted captain for his brilliant services.
 1830—Henry Woodfin Grady, editor and orator, leader of the "New South," died at Atlanta; born 1850.

THE NATION CRIPPLED.

Panics in Wall street testify to the weakness of democratic financiering. There is nothing in the Venezuela situation to cause terror and yet one breath of war utterly demoralizes the money market. It brings home the fact that every month of democratic administration has weakened the country. Does anybody think the treasury would have been at the mercy of London capitalists and stock buyers had republicans instead of democrats been in control for the last three years? Did one day's shipments of gold ever send a republican secretary of the treasury flying about Washington bare-headed and nervous? Mr. Cleveland's Americanism is all right, and people admire him for it, but they don't forget that he and his congress, by three years of misgovernment have robbed the country of its revenues emptied its treasury and weakened it for the war England is most likely to wage—the war with golden bullets.

WHY ENGLAND WON'T ARBITRATE.

The reason England does not want to arbitrate the Venezuela boundary question is not hard to find out. In all the years of her controversy with Venezuela England has been the encroaching party. Since the discovery of gold near the Orinoco the English have slowly advanced upon Venezuelan territory, getting bolder with every revolution that weakened the republic. Professor W. Sievas, the well known German geographer, declares that England recognizes Venezuela's present claim until within present years, that Venezuela has always owned the auriferous district, and that the people of the republic "will only be defending their rights if they remove encroaching Englishmen and send troops to the territory." This opinion may be said to prevail among all, except Englishmen, who have looked into the facts connected with the dispute.

TRADE AT HOME

There is a good deal of missionary work to be done in Janesville yet and this is a good time to do it. The people need to learn the wisdom of trading at home.

The stores of the city show lines of holiday goods this year that compare in quality with any but the most elaborate in Chicago. There cannot be the variety given in a store that draws custom from the entire northwest but Janesville stores are known throughout Southern Wisconsin of the variety they afford and every new customer makes possible further improvements. Good stores enlarge the circle of the city's trade. Good stores are made possible primarily by united backing of the home trade. Let it not be said that Janesville is discredited by the action of her own people.

Buy your Christmas goods at home. That will warrant Janesville merchants to put in bigger stocks next year, and to bid for a wider circle of trade. Every dollar spent here benefits the town for a twelve-month. Every dollar taken away checks progress and discourages enterprise.

There will be no war with England but the scare has its practical use in showing to what a point three years of democratic rule have brought the finances of the nation.

It looks as if Mr. Reid's machine were being oiled up to give Mr. McKinley's machine a hot race.

Even if the street cars don't run people can show strangers the tracks and the trolley wire.

Thinks Indian Troubles Are Over.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 23.—Brigadier General Frank Wheaton, who has just arrived home from his trip to Southern New Mexico and Arizona, holds the opinion that there will be no more Indian disturbances. "The country," said he, "is one of the roughest in the world, and it is almost impossible to follow a trail. We propose, however, to prosecute the search for the renegades as vigorously as possible, and hope to be rewarded with success. Detachments of cavalry are now scouring the country, and if any Indian be found off the reservation it is likely to go pretty hard with him."

ARE YOU THIN?

Do You Want to Become Fleshy?

A FEW SIMPLE RULES

Flesh and Not Fat Is What Is Needed.

What thin people want is flesh and not fat. To be symmetrical and properly proportioned, every person should have a certain amount of flesh. To be plump does not necessarily mean to be fat. Fat is undesirable, it clogs and retards the action of every muscle, interferes with the healthy action of the heart and lungs, and when excession predisposes of fatty degeneration of vital organs; to say nothing of the discomfort more or less, resulting from excessive dispo tissue.

Common sense would suggest, that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump, the thing most needed would be flesh forming foods, in other words albuminous foods, like eggs, beef, oatmeal, etc. The kinds of food that make flesh are the foods that form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

Now, the only reason so many people remain thin is because their stomachs do not properly and completely digest and assimilate the flesh-forming beef steak and eggs we eat every day.

There are thousands of such people and they are really dyspeptics, although they may not suffer any particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would take with their meals some preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly digested and the proper degree of plumpness very soon secured, because these Tablets are prepared exactly for that purpose. They will digest every variety of flesh-forming food, which is the sole reason why they so quickly build up and strengthen thin, dyspeptic men and women.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and every form of indigestion on this common sense plan, that they digest the food promptly, giving strength to every nerve and organ in the body, while at the same time the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural vigor. Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

This excellent preparation is manufactured by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at 60 cents per package.

A DAY'S CITY NEWS.

CAPT. W. T. VANKIRK returned from the east last night, he having been called there by the death of his brother. Capt. Vankirk was in Philadelphia one day, and saw the troubles arising out of the great street car strike. He said that mounted police patrolled the streets and that the city hall was their headquarters and rallying place. Traffic was about paralyzed, and but little could be done. The weather, he said, was warm, and there was no sign of snow in the Quaker City.

A MAN buys clothes and they wear out, a carriage and it breaks down, hardware and it rusts away, but diamonds and he gets a hard shining value that brightens the days of prosperity and affords a sense of security and value that stays with him always. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers" carry a stock of jewels sufficiently varied to meet every requirement. All are exquisitely cut and are shown in settings of the prevailing style. It does not take a fortune to secure something beautiful if you go to the right place.

THE longer it's kept the greater becomes its value, can be said of few things save silver. The amount of solid silver in the family is often spoken of with pride. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers," make a specialty of sterling silver and show spoons and forks in all the new and popular patterns of the principal silversmiths of the world. A set of spoons or forks would surely please as a Xmas gift.

WITH the very best at your command and prices attached that interest you because they show fairness and liability, how can you miss getting one of those beautiful onyx tables at A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers." The metal work is the best, the quality of onyx used is the best, and its pure case of "the best is cheapest."

FIFTY Odd Fellows and their wives perpetrated a pleasant surprise on George Hiller Saturday night at his house at the "Dr. Robinson" place. When he returned home he found his home in their possession and joy reigned supreme. Music was furnished by the "Odd Fellows Band" and with cards, dancing and feasting, the evening was made a merry one.

If you expect to experience satisfaction after you have purchased your Christmas gifts, you must select them with intelligence and care. You can make no mistake in buying of A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers." Everything they have is new and pretty and right priced. See them this evening.

In speaking of the settlement of the Bort, Bailey & Co. fire loss the Beloit Free Press says: "It is seldom, if ever, a speedy settlement of a fire loss is made, and the transaction speaks in high terms both for the high business standing of the firm and for the insurance companies concerned."

Owing to the tremendous rush of Christmas business we have not had a chance to sort out the damaged domestic, etc. Handkerchiefs and ribbons the entire line of damaged goods is reduced in price and must be closed out at one once. Bort, Bailey & Co.

If you are going to buy a thimble for a Christmas present, buy it where they can give you any size you want in three or four styles. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers" can do this and save you money even in thimbles.

THE Lake Geneva Herald—one of the best weekly papers in Wisconsin—has been enlarged to an eight-column, eight-page form, giving substantial evidence that the good people of that place appreciate a good paper.

Give something that can be kept. For a child there is a ring, a cup, a spoon or a set of three pieces—knife, fork and spoon. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers" have a various stock making a wide range of prices.

If you want to laugh and be amused generally, go and see Mackie in Grimes' Cellar Door company. Two hours of solid fun. Smile, smile, smile. Laugh, laugh, laugh. At the Opera House Dec. 23.

It makes no difference whether she is up in time or not; any girl who works would like a clock for her room. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers," sell clocks that can be depended on.

THE "DeKalb passenger" in charge of Conductor Dower which arrives here at 7:55 p. m. has orders to wait here until the arrival of the "accommodation" from Chicago before leaving for Madison.

OUR line of Christmas shoes and slippers is more complete than ever. You cannot do a more wise thing than to purchase articles that are useful as well as pretty. Becker & Woodruff. STOCKHOLDERS OF THE JANESVILLE MACHINE CO. MEET.

Business of the Present Year Was Better Than That of 1894, and the Prospects Are Good for 1896—The Officers and Directors Chosen—Now Making Repairs.

At the annual stockholders' meeting of the Janesville Machine Company the following officers and directors were elected for the ensuing year: President—A. P. Lovejoy.

Vice President—Hiram Merrill. Secretary and Treasurer—Isaac Farnsworth.

Manager—L. B. Reynolds. Superintendent—Samuel C. Cobb. Directors—James Harris, A. P. Lovejoy, Hiram Merrill, Isaac Farnsworth, S. C. Cobb, David Jeffris, A. M. Valentine, Richard Wiggin and J. G. R. xford.

The meeting, which was held at the Machine Company's office, was an interesting one and the reports showed that the season of '95 had been more profitable than that of '94. The present outlook is very encouraging. A number of needed repairs are being made at the plant.

Manager W. W. Jones of the Rock River Woolen Mills, says that the mills, which have had such a steady run, and much overtime the past year, will stop Christmas day and the balance of the week, so that the help may have a well earned rest.

ALL SOULS, The People's Church Faith.

Faith is good, helpful and a thing earnestly to be cultivated. Only be sure that it is faith. Let your faith be illuminated with intelligence. To hold on with shut eyes to some dogma or sacrament is not faith. Faith is an open-eyed confidence in goodness and in justice and in truth. When a man is willing to trust everything that is good and just and true, he has a faith that will make him faithful to all.

A MAY MADRIGAL.

Birds are busy on the bough;
Listen how they sing!
All the world is merry now
In the arms of spring.
Twinkling blossoms on the spray,
Frembling stars above,
How they gladden, hearing May Whisper softly, Love!

Fickle April gone at last;
Scattered with her has flown.
May and Hope returned and fast
Calling to their own.
In her garden bower the rose
Slips a velvet glove;
Some one calls her—well she knows
'Tis the voice of Love!

On the vine the gentle gales
Kiss the buds awake.
Drowsy violets in the vales
All their dreams forsake.
Back on shining pinnions fleet
Flies her faithful dove
With May's message, strange and sweet,
With your message, Love.

—Frank D. Sherman in Ladies' Home Journal.

A WIDOW'S LOVE.

It was "steamer day" at Sitka, and amid all the joyous stir and excitement that the monthly boat brought was one forlorn, unhappy man. Tom Douglas watched his friends as they eagerly opened their letters and listened with assumed interest to the bits of news they were anxious to share, for at Sitka the population throngs to the wharf when the steamer's whistle is heard and waits the coming of the ship and the distribution of the mails. The people crowd in to the tiny postoffice on the dock and watch impatiently for the longed for home letters.

But Tom's home letter was not a comfort to him. "Well, she is really coming," he thought, "a month from today, if the steamer is on time. I will be a married man; worse luck. How can I ever tell Natalia, dear little girl! I wouldn't willingly hurt her tender feelings for $1,000,000, as hard up as I am." And Tom whistled ruefully.

Tom Douglas was a naval officer and before being stationed at Sitka he had been on duty a winter in Washington, where he plunged into society with that gay abandon that only a sailor knows, for after three years at sea a young fellow is quite ready for the rush and whirl of the gay capital. All houses were open to the handsome lieutenant, but there was one where he was especially welcome. The hostess was a pretty widow of some 26 or 27 years of age. Her husband, who had died soon after their marriage, seemed not to have had a very strong hold on her affections, for after mourning him decorously for a year she blossomed into the gayest of the gay, and her house became a center for the young officers who had been the friends of her husband.

It was there that Tom spent most of his time. He dropped in during the morning and discussed the newest gossip or the latest magazines and came in for a cup of tea in the afternoon and remained till her cozy parlor was empty save for himself and her.

"Are you going to the assembly to-night?" he would ask.

"Will you be there, Tom?" Mrs. Deering had such a good fellowship way of using her friends' first names.

"Yes, I presume so."

"Well, then, I am going," the little widow would reply.

And that was the way the winter passed, Tom running in at all hours, privileged to smoke or read, to talk or listen, the most indulged of all her callers. When his orders came for his immediate removal to Alaska, he put the document in his pocket and went as usual to the cheery home of Mrs. Deering. He told her the news and was really surprised and flattered by her reception of it. She took both his hands in hers, and the tears gathered in her bright eyes.

"Oh, Tom," she said, "I hate to have you go."

Now, it never occurred to Lieutenant Douglas before, but at this moment the idea did come to him that he was in love with the widow. He drew her to him and kissed away her tears, and before he knew it he was engaged to Alice Deering.

He left soon after arranging to have Alice join him later in the summer, but owing to the loss of a distant relative, the heir of whose modest estate she was, her coming had been greatly delayed. It was now more than a year since Tom and she had parted in Washington. In the meantime Tom had whiled away his leisure hours in the somewhat narrow circle of Sitka society, but in that narrow bound he had found a fair Russian flower that he knew bloomed for him. Though Tom had not made love to Natalia—he was too honorable for that—they had been together constantly, and each knew instinctively what was in the other's heart.

"I believe I'll go and tell Natalia all," Tom continued to muse, "right now, for of course as a gentleman and officer I am bound to keep my word, and my word is given to marry Alice—hang it! I wish I had never been born. She, too, poor girl, may discover that my love has somewhat cooled. If it ever was love, it never was the same feeling I have for dear little Natalia, bless her loving heart."

So Tom went to Natalia and told her that he was engaged, and that another month would see him married.

Her delicate face whitened, but controlling herself she said:

"I congratulate you, Mr. Douglas." Then, bursting into tears, she turned away. The sight of her tears was too much for Tom. Embracing her tenderly, he said: "I love but you, Natalia, darling. Oh, that I had met you first! My fondness for Alice was but a fleeting thing, and my love for you will last forever."

Pressing warm kisses on her lips, he held her close.

"Leave me, Tom. It is right for you to keep your word, but you should have told me of your engagement before. We had best part now. Goodbye."

"But can't I come to see you, Natalia, as usual?"

"Why, certainly not, Mr. Douglas."

It would only be painful, for we can never, from this time forward, be anything but the most formal of friends."

Tom was touched by the simple dignity of the young Russian girl, whose quiet life had been spent by the seashore under the shadow of the mountains, far from the noise of city or town, so he bowed to her will. Their parting was a heartbreaking one to both.

"Natalia, I can't bear to leave you. I must have you, dearest."

"There, go now. This is only foolish."

"Well, then, let me kiss you for the last time, darling," pleaded Tom.

Natalia put up her little tear stained face, and Tom silently kissed her and went away.

That month passed only too quickly for poor Tom, who looked with dread toward the coming of the steamer. He studiously avoided Natalia, denying himself the regular afternoon walk to the Indian river, which is the event of the day to all the white people at Sitka. He kept close to his rooms when not on board ship, cursing the mistake of his life which was so soon to make an unwilling bridegroom of him.

To Natalia, whose soft, brown eyes were red with weeping, life seemed a dreary blank now that the daily visits of Tom had ceased. There appeared in her mental horizon nothing for which to live. She wondered how she had existed before he came to Sitka. But then she had been busy with her lessons, and now, in the idea of her old fashioned father, her simple education was complete, and it was time for her to marry one of the Russian lads who sought her hand.

The next "steamer day" Tom Douglas was seen rushing madly to Natalia's home. The neighbors, who of course had noted his long absence, were greatly surprised.

"Natalia, Natalia," he cried as soon as she came into the quaint drawing room to receive him. "I've come to ask you to be my wife. Dearest, say yes at once."

"Why, Tom, are you crazy? What has become of Alice?"

"Well, by George, Natalia, she is married! Just think of it—married! And I am the happiest man on earth. A pardoned convict's feelings of relief are not to be compared to mine. You see, soon after she left Washington she met an old sweetheart whom she had cast off to marry Mr. Deering, whose position and prospects seemed better. In the meantime this fellow had made a fortune, and as he was on his way to Alaska for a pleasure trip they decided to make it also a wedding trip and break the news to me in person. Rather awkward, you might think, but I congratulated them with all my heart and thanked my stars for my freedom. Come, little girl, put on your hat, and I'll take you down to the steamer to see the bride, and I'll introduce to her my fiancée, because you say, 'Yes,' don't you, dear?"

"I suppose so, Tom, but it's all so sudden. Shall I wear my leghorn hat?"

Society Hard Pressed.
 Little Miss De Fashion (meeting noted author in the park)—How do do, Mr. Finemind! Mamma is awful glad you is comin' to her reception.
 Great Author—I am delighted to learn that she is pleased.
 "Yes, she says you is the biggest society lion of the season, and she's so glad she got ahead of that Mrs. De Style. Mamma has told everybody you are comin', and they is all worked most to death. Mamma's head aches awful this morning."
 "Um—to what work do you refer, my dear?"
 "Why, you know. Everybody is nearly killin' themselves tryin' to read your books, so they can talk to you about 'em."—N. Y. Weekly.

How He Overdid It.
 "Say, you know that $150 diamond I had?"
 "Yes."
 "You know it was stolen and I told the reporters it was worth $450?"
 "Yes."
 "Well, say, come down to the station with me—the police have recovered that pin and won't give it up!"—Chicago Record.

Secrets of the Trade.
 Tailor—Thought I'd met some nerry people, but—Shoemaker—What now?
 Tailor—I've had to press these trousers four times, and they are not even paid for.
 Shoemaker—That's nothing. I went to collect a bill for a pair of shoes yesterday, and the fellow kicked me out with them!—Chicago Record.

Another Settling Wished For.
 "Well, Frank Skidd and Miss Skittish have married and settled down," said one man to another.
 "I wish they would settle up the expenses of the wedding," replied the man addressed, who happened to be the caterer who had charge of the festivities.—Bay City Chat.

An Appropriate Addition.
 Twynn—The judge who sentenced that murderer this morning is evidently opposed to the carrying of bouquets to such criminals by silly women.
 Triplett—What did he say?
 Twynn—After he pronounced the usual sentence of death he added: "No flowers."—Judge.

A Mother-in-Law Not Desired.
 Mr. Hardhead—I have called, sir, to ask for the hand of your daughter.
 Old Gentleman (with emotion)—She is the only child I have, and her mother is gone.
 Mr. Hardhead (hastily)—Oh, that's no objection, I assure you.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Vain Wish.
 "Peace on earth and good will toward men."
 With these words and a sweet smile he died.
 But the lawyers came, and there was no peace on earth, for the good will was broken by the heirs.—N. Y. World.

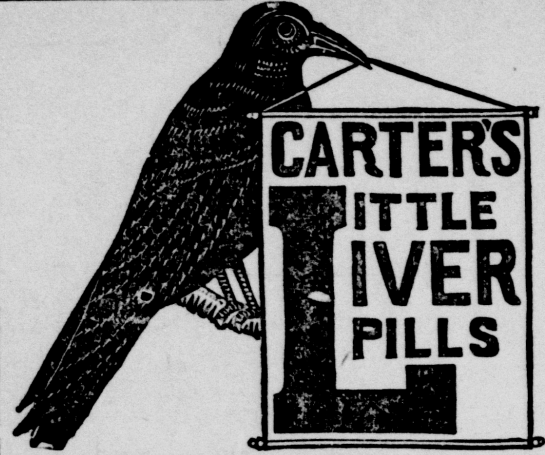

Happy Thought.
 Wool—How are the Neweds getting along?
 Van Pelt—Very nicely. Having discovered that they could never think alike, they agreed to pair and let the cook have the deciding vote.—

GREAT SCOTT!
 Don't wait until the war breaks out before you make a purchase of goods, for if you do it will cost you more to purchase one suit of Clothes than it does to Purchase fine suits today out of our stock. Come early and I will give you bottom prices on all goods. No war prices at my store. Everything goes and that is At least 10 per cent less than those fellows who are all ready to put up goods to prices higher than this country has been paying for, at our house. Come early and you will not miss a good bargain, and you are likely to make one of the best purchases of your life, and if you go to to the war it may be Your last chance to get one of the Gold Watches that are now in sight in my front window. Don't fail. One fine purchase may make you happy for life. Tuesday, after dinner, the first lot will be given away, and the lucky person will go away happy.

Conceded by the Women--
 That ARCHIE REID'S is the store where they can do the best on every line of Holiday Goods. Other stores have, for example, handkerchiefs at 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c and up—so does this store, but our lines are so far superior, so much better value at the same money. Mufflers in many designs of the dark colors, silk and wool effects, others ask 50c and possibly 75c—but here they are 39c. Men's pure linen Initial Handkerchiefs advertised by one dry goods house in town at half a dollar (and worth it), but here 25c. Ice Wool Shawls in this store are as low as 39c. White Aprons, satin stripe and corded, such as other stores hang up at a quarter, are here at 15c. Kid Gloves, the standard dollar glove everywhere, is for Xmas 89c. Men's regular made Socks, black or tan, in half-dozen boxes, 10c pair. Genuine Ostrich Feather Boas, $1.69. Satin Belt Hose Supporters at 23c. Half price takes the Baskets. Stamped Linens, Lace and Silk Doylies and Tidies, Turkish Mats, Silk Sofa Pillows, Children's Furs, Shawls, Umbrellas and all the various lines of Holiday Goods.

Buy where the masses do.

It's Talked About!

Yes, it's the talk of the town---our TROUSERS sale---and many a skeptic has come to our store with no intention of buying, but simply to see if such things as we advertise can be true. They, like the resist, could not resist

Our Great Cost Sale.

So placed their orders. Have you been here? If not, come soon as possible as the good things are going fast. TROUSERS---strictly tailor made and equal to the kind the merchant tailor turns out at 8 to 10 dollars---of us now at $3.00, $3.50, $3.75, $4.00 and $4.25. All of our best grades of $5.00 pants, $3.50. All over $6.50 ones at $4.25.

In Fact

your choice of any Pantatoot in our store at exactly what they cost us. Do you realize what this offer means? A pair of our Scotch Flannel Night Robes at $1.00 each, or a dozen pairs of our genuine Middlesex Hose at $1.50. Either would make

A nice present for Christmas.
